This is an excellent opportunity for speculation, or to get a home in one of the best spots in California. Will be in Reno for a few days, and will be pleased to meet all those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity. my24tf C. S. YOUNG.

Give Them a Chance!
That is to say, your lungs. All our breathing machinery is. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the names of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is but one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bosanko's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at a bottle. Even if your lungs are clogged, you may depend upon it.

Selection of Breeding Stock.

Herds and Flocks.
Before buying an animal it will be well to make a thorough examination of the same. The portions of the body, the character of the skin; the length, size and nature of the limbs need closest scanning. If it is a horse, watch him when in motion or when at rest. If he is sound he will stand squarely on his limbs with feet firmly planted on the ground. Coarseness of bone and angular projections of body are indications of inferior quality. The back should be short, the loins powerful, shoulders sloping and quarters long. A good cow, too, possesses certain physical qualities which indicate her value. Her head should be handsome, face intelligent, eyes bright and full, and the expression docile, the neck short, carrying the head gracefully; the ears not too large and well covered with fine long hair; the back straight and broad across the hips, the ribs well arched, the shoulders long and straight, extending well on to the body, so as to form a deep round chest; the legs short and straight and under the line even; the skin soft and mellow to the touch, covered with abundant fine hair. These points here given are quite general and apply to the most of the leading breeds. Each breed has in addition to these qualities some characteristic points which will be furnished upon application to the secretaries of the different associations and breed books.

While "looks" cannot always be depended upon, it is one of the chief means of judging the animal. It is said that one of the early owners of Goldsmith Maid was so ashamed of her looks that he led her to the market place through a back street and upon her looks she sold for $35. Her looks deceived many. Still it may be remarked that the skillful horse-trainer of to-day could have detected in her make-up some of those qualities that later made her so famous; and this leads us to say that it requires a study of the characteristics of good animals before they are seen and appreciated; just as a great painting which at first sight has nothing in it to attract the amateur, but upon careful study there are often unfolded to that student points of beauty and power that at first were not believed to exist in the picture.

The next point in the examination of an animal is individual record. Is it a breeder; if so, what kind? Is its offspring strong and full of life and health? If a male, does he impress his own qualities upon his get, whether half or three quarters blood? If a cow for the dairy she should be a good milker; that is, produce the largest amount of good, rich milk at the lowest possible cost of food; the ratio of milk to butter produced should be small.

Again, make an examination of the record of the animal's sire and dam; in other words, find what its pedigree is. Individual merit is important for breeding purposes. There are too many instances on record where progeny has shown peculiarities that did not belong to either sire or dam, but which were possessed by their remote ancestors. Qualities possessed by ancestors for a number of generations may be looked for in their progeny with great confidence; in fact, it is a law of animal and plant life, and nature never violates her laws. Where exceptions occur we believe there is a cause for their occurrence. The importance of these laws have not yet received due appreciation by breeders in general. This importance will be sufficient reason for making heredity the subject of our next "talk." Beginners who as a rule, find themselves unable to determine the necessary qualifications of an animal with satisfaction, may seek their stock at the hands of breeders who are known as competent and reliable men. Such men can show them the good points about any kind of stock in a very short time, and if they sell their own it will be as represented.

EVERY NIGHT I SCRATCHED

Until the Skin was Raw, Body Covered with scales like spots of mortaria. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.
I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your Cuticura Remedies performed on me. About the first of April last I noticed some red pimples like corns all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later on when I began to look like spots of mortar. I began to scratch myself all over my body, and the next night the scales began to come off. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the country, but without effect. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies, and I purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice the scales dropping off, and I began to feel better. I took them and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express in words the thanks you have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's.

SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1888

MUCH has been said and will be said on the tariff issue. The Kansas City Live Stock Record and Farmer presented its readers with the following sensible article:

The thousands of immigrants who land on our shores from all parts of Europe furnish an indisputable argument in favor of our existing high tariff. When people leave the homes of their fathers, the scenes of their childhood, the ties of their birth and consanguinity, and come to America, it is because they realize that here, under our present form of government, the laborer receives wages commensurate with the service performed. The Free-Traders say that wages would be just as high if the tariff were wiped out of existence. Why, then, do they not pay good wages in the Free-Trade countries of Europe? Ask the immigrants who come to this country and they will tell you the reason—no industry is protected. The jobbers cut prices, the merchants must do it in self-protection, and the result is the manufacturer must either pay starvation wages or shut up shop. This is the whole thing in a nut-shell. Nine-tenths of the immigrants who come to America land with less than $100 in their pockets. They have heard of the high wages and easy living in this new country across the sea. To men who have worked for wages at 37½ cents a day, the prospect of double that sum is alluring, to say the least. Good beef in England costs three times as much as Kansas City prime beef. The flour that is used there costs nearly one-third more, and most of it is American made at that. The Germans are complaining that American cheese is breaking up cheese-making in the Fatherland, notwithstanding that they get their labor there for 30 to 40 cents a day. The Free-Traders should suppress the immigration statistics if they expect some of their statements to hold water.

THE GAZETTE is indebted to Senator Stewart for his report from the Military Committee on military affairs. It is known that Senator Stewart introduced a bill to have Nevada reimbursed for money paid and contracted to be paid by the Territory of Nevada, which was assumed when the State was organized.

The document has over one hundred and fifty pages and gives a full history of the action of the General Government and State during the time these allegations were created. Among the exhibits he sets forth a full statement of payments to the several States by the United States for expenditures made by them during several of the great struggles as well as an itemized account of the claims of Nevada.

The report is another evidence of the thoroughness with which our Senator does things. Nothing has escaped his attention that would have an intelligent tendency to have our rights properly placed before Congress. He cites the decisions made by the authorities before whom these claims have been placed, their action, and has gone into the records, showing the position taken by committees and prominent members of Congress on State claims of similar character growing out of the war of 1812 and later wars. If the claimants do not get their just deserts in this matter it will not be the lack of an able and statesman like fight on the part of Senator Stewart.

THE Examiner is out with an immense out representing Cleveland with Democracy in the background, armed with a shield and sword, a nude figure representing the Pacific Slope seated on a bear is gazing wistfully but doubtfully upon the face of Cleveland. Beneath and in front, as it were, is the portrait of Thurman, being wrestled by the intend goddess, Success.

The sad countenance of the standing figure, Democracy, and the woe-begone expression of Pacific Slope and Success, show that the artist had heard from Oregon before he executed his work.

The delayed train. The passenger train from San Francisco did not arrive until 10 o'clock A.M. Attached to it were six cars loaded with fruit going east, besides the express car heavily loaded with fruit for local points. Immediately following came the second section composed of a Burlington excursion party East. It was made up of citizens from Los Angeles and San Francisco, and occupied thirteen excursion coaches.

FOR CHICAGO.

The California Delegation—Railroad Talk.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Six excursion trains have already been reserved for the use of the California delegation on their travel to Chicago; and it is expected that one more will be added by next Sunday. The delegation leaves this city at eight P. M. next Sunday. About 200 people will accompany the excursion. Creed Haymond, M. H. de Young, Eli Dennison and H. T. Gage, of Los Angeles, have taken drawing room cars. Pullmans that the delegation will use will be like those given the Democratic delegation, inasmuch as these Pullmans are all of the modern style, and are new and clean.

Richard Gray and T. H. Goodman, of the Southern Pacific, have left for St. Paul to attend the Transcontinental meeting. "We are building extensions to our machine shops here," he said. "This machine shop addition is 112 feet in length, and ninety feet in width. We are also adding to our carshops, paintshops and blacksmith shops. This has been done in order to keep pace with the vast amount of repairing that has continually to be done. You see we are now obliged to run a night shift, but when the shops are enlarged there will be room enough to work so big a force that this night shift can be done away with. All else is quiet along the line."

Julius Booth's Daughter. BALTIMORE, June 9.—Another grave was filled in the Booth lot at Greenmount Cemetery to-day, when the remains of Mrs. John Sleeper Clarke were laid beside those of her father, Julius Brutus Booth. A group of prominent theatrical people stood beside the grave and beheld the last rites performed. They were John Sleeper Clarke, the husband of the deceased; Creston Clarke, her son; Edwin Booth, her brother; John T. Ford, J. A. Booth and a few Baltimore friends.

The Booth lot is one of the best sites in Greenmount. John Wilkes Booth and several other members of the family are buried there. Mrs. Asia Booth Clarke was born in Baltimore and resided here many years. She was not married until she was two years old because her father and mother were unable to decide upon a name. Finally Mr. Booth decided by writing his wife: "Call the little girl Asia in remembrance of the country where God first walked with man, and Prigga because she first came to us on Friday, which day is consecrated to the Nativity of Christ."

Mrs. Clarke went to England in 1866 and never returned alive to this country. She always said that she was unwilling to risk a sea voyage, but the real reason of her dread of hearing references to her brother, John Wilkes Booth. It was a relief to her to get away from the scenes made so painful to her by the close tragedy of the war. Her remains were brought from New York this morning and taken direct to the cemetery.

The American Party. SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—At a meeting last evening of the State Executive Committee of the American party a motion was adopted increasing the membership of the State Central Committee of the counties of San Joaquin, Sacramento, Santa Clara, Fresno and Tulare to five each.

Dr. C. L. Tisdale of Alameda and J. T. Taylor and F. W. Titus of San Francisco were admitted to membership.

A resolution was passed authorizing American bodies throughout the State, where they feel organized, to appoint delegates to the State Convention should an election seem impracticable. A committee of three, P. D. Wigginton, D. Lambert and Bernard Marks, was appointed on campaign literature. Plans and preparations for the State Convention, to assemble in this city on the 4th of July, were discussed. The idea of putting up a straight American ticket in the coming national contest was advocated, but no action was taken.

General Sheridan Dying. WASHINGTON, June 8.—At 9 o'clock it was stated there had been no change in General Sheridan's condition since the last bulletin.

At 11 o'clock this morning it was stated that General Sheridan's mind had remained perfectly clear. He was resting quietly, with little or no pain, and for the time being his condition is slightly improved. The organic diseases from which he suffers, however, remain unyielding. He was more or less delirious all through the night, but violently, but he could not recognize the members of his family or physicians and refused to take any medicine or nourishment. About five o'clock this morning his mind was clearer and he readily took peptonized milk. Each of the several attacks which he has had lately has left him much weaker than the previous one. His rallies are but partial and unsatisfactory, the altogether his case is a most desperate one. From information received from a high source it is believed that the end is not far off.

1:35.—Sheridan's respiration is now 28, but varies. His skin is warm and moist. He coughs but little. His mind is clear.

A Protective League Organized in New York.

New York, June 9.—An Irish-American anti-Cleveland Protective League was organized this evening. Many cities and towns were represented. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the Democratic Convention for re-nominating Cleveland and its approval of his Free-trade movement, and declaring his re-election would "inflict lasting injury on the industrial life of the nation."

OHIO, REPUBLICANS.

Blaine Looms Up in One of Their District Meetings.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, June 9.—The Republicans of the Eighth congressional district held an enthusiastic meeting at Black's Opera House last night. The meeting was addressed by William H. West, who nominated Blaine in 1884. He said that the idea of the meeting was not to antagonize any of the distinguished gentlemen in connection with the Chicago Convention, but merely to express the preference of the Republicans of that district for a leader. He doubted not that all these men were qualified for the high office of President; but personal strength with the people, in addition to qualification, was demanded of the candidate this year. He said Blaine had been driven from the contest by his endorsement of Sherman at Toledo a year ago, and stated his belief that the Florence and Paris letters would never have been written, had it not been for that endorsement. He expressed his belief that Blaine and Depew could pull 50,000 more votes in New York than any other candidate, and Ohio ought to be mindful of that fact.

Resolutions were adopted pledging support to the Chicago nominee, but commended to the convention "that peerless statesman, James G. Blaine, whose name is linked with certain victory."

An Extended Trip.

On Monday Dr. A. Dawson, accompanied by his son Dwight, will leave for the East for a two and a half months' visit. He will first go to St. Louis in the capacity of a representative from the Nevada Jurisdiction of A. O. U. W. to the National Medical Convention, composed of the medical examiners of the Order of A. O. U. W. of the United States, who meet with the view of adopting regulations that will better serve the organization.

After attending this convention the Doctor will visit the leading cities of the East, and then his old home in New York, where he has not been for a number of years. The GAZETTE hopes the Doctor will enjoy his respite from his professional labors.

The Emblem.

The following is true because it is fathered by the Nevada Tribune:

A prominent Democrat was asked why his party had selected so ridiculous an emblem as a bandana handkerchief, and the reply was "to please Cleveland's expected baby and wife poor old Thurman's nasal protuberance on November the fourth." Think folks may believe whatever they desire to, but it is a notorious fact that here at the capital of Nevada are a score of consistent Democrats who do not like Cleveland and who will rather not vote at all than cast a ballot for him.

Last Night's Demonstration. The Democracy erected a funeral pile yesterday afternoon on Plaza street. It was not announced whether it was to consume the remains of the Democratic party in Oregon, or emblematic that the work of the St. Louis Convention will go up in smoke. When the torch was touched to the inflammable structure the anvil was made to belch forth a kind of a dirge, much to the amusement of the small boys, who, with a few of the faithful, witnessed the funeral like enthusiasm.

Let Some One Move. There is ample time for the citizens of Reno to move in the matter of a Fourth of July celebration. It would be a nice thing for our leading business men to sign a call for a general meeting, which, without doubt would be a large one, and arrange for a big Fourth. The town has never done any thing by halves, and all that is required to have a gala day here on the Fourth is for some one to take the initiatory steps. If an effort is made the ball should be set to rolling at once.

The Palace.

Special attention is called to the new advertisement of the Palace dry goods and carpet house. This enterprising firm offer great inducements for those desiring anything in their line in addition to their specialties, to call and examine their stock. It will not cost anything to examine the quality of their goods and to compare prices with San Francisco houses.

Knights Templar.

A four-in-hand will convey to Virginia City this afternoon the following gentlemen, viz: T. K. Hyams, L. J. Flint, R. W. Parry, Judge Webster, H. C. Davis, W. R. Chamberlain, Dr. Thomas and Geo. Cunningham. Messrs. Parry and Flint go to receive the Templar degree, and the others to assist in conferring it.

"It Makes Me Tired"

To read all these advertisements of medicines upon medicines—when they enumerate with such particularity and minuteness of detail, all the diseases mankind ever won't and ever "baby-kind" are heir to. How cheap one feels to commence what she supposes to be a tragic or tender love-story, read until her sympathies are so aroused that she can scarcely sleep without knowing whether they were married or not, and then have it and something like this: Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only positive cure for all diseases of "female weakness," such as profluvium, inflammation, periodical pains, etc. For sale by all druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pills are Laxative or Cathartic according to size of dose. A sound body and a contented mind are necessary to perfect happiness. If you wish to possess these, cleanse your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is perfect in its nature, and is a thoroughly reliable, highly concentrated, and powerful blood purifier.

A Distinguished Visitor.

General John C. Fremont was a passenger on the east-bound train this morning, and in a short interview with him, a GAZETTE reporter learned that his visit East is on business matters solely that will detain him there about four weeks, when he will return to California by this route. His wife remains in Los Angeles, which is now their permanent home. The General looks genial and kindly and conversed pleasantly upon local topics, and expressed himself deeply impressed with the wonderful growth of California, especially of the southern section of the State. The change is great since the Pathfinder explored this terra incognita in 1846, and the General views the scenes with all the glee of a child returning to his early home.

Selections were offered by the State for the month of May at the Carson City Land District, 13,321.25 acres; at the Eureka Land District, 13,817.94 acres.

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS

The following platform and resolutions were adopted by the Republican State Convention, which convened at Winnemucca on the 15th instant:

The Republicans of the State of Nevada, in Convention assembled, again express their loyalty to the principles of the Republican party, which have made this country so great and prosperous during the last quarter of a century.

Resolved, That the question of a sufficient supply of circulating medium to maintain a permanent range of the price of labor and property is the most important political question awaiting solution by the American people.

That a diminishing quantity of money reduces the price of labor and property, enriches the creditor and impoverishes the debtor, and paralyzes industry and enterprise.

That the present financial system of the United States, which increases or diminishes the circulating medium at the pleasure of the manipulators of the national bank, without regard to the increase of population or the wants of the people, and which recognizes gold alone as the standard of value, and places in the hands of the Treasury Department all the revenue of the Government to speculate with in bonds and loan to the national banks without interest, is subversive of the rights of the people, oppressive, unjust and should be repudiated.

That a financial policy whereby both gold and silver shall form the basis of circulation, whether the money coined by the people, or coin certificates redeemable in coin, or both, as convenience may require, is imperatively demanded.

That the attempt to substitute national bank notes, costing the Government millions of dollars annually

NEVADA'S DELEGATION.

The Representatives of Sage-land off for Chicago on Monday Morning.

Reno Will Give Them a Western Send-off—Col. R. H. Lindsay to May a Few Words on the Occasion.

When the California delegates to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis, passed through Reno on the way to the scene of their recent labors, they did not create much of a stir. Nor did their fellow Democrats from Nevada, who joined them here, add much to the suppressed enthusiasm. They were waiting until their arrival at St. Louis, where, as Thurman boomers, they intended starting the Rip Van Winkle Democracy of the Atlantic seaboard. Knowing of the great effort that was to be put forth to carry Oregon, and having full knowledge, also, of the money that had been sent there, and of the untiring efforts that were being made by that great Apostle of FREE TRADE, John P. Irish, they did not get there and they did not get up the Thurman boom, and they did not nominate their man. The Democrats along the Pacific Coast having done so well, their political opponents and conquerors in an hundred contests will try their mettle at Chicago. And with a grand victory in Oregon to give them something to shout about, they propose to start from the coast with a battle cry of "Protection of American Industries," and on next Monday morning THE NEVADA DELEGATION will board the special car at Reno and speed onward to the City by the Lake. The California delegation will arrive here some time during the morning on Monday, and upon its arrival will be met at the depot by the principal citizens of this place. Brass bands and cannon will welcome them, and the people will vie with each other in giving them a Pacific Coast welcome. Colonel R. H. Lindsay will deliver an address of welcome, and a jolly good time will be indulged in all around. On Sunday night Senator Sharon, Senator Williams, delegates, and Colonel George C. Thaxter, alternate, will arrive from Virginia and Carson. Governor and Mrs. Stevenson expect to accompany the delegation to Chicago, and Senator Foley, delegate, will join the party at Palisade on business last night. A. C. Hamilton, the other delegate, has already gone East. THIRTY-SEVEN of the Nevada delegation will be handsomely decorated and will form an attractive feature of the grand train across the continent. The line of route over which the delegation will travel, is learned, will be to Ogden by the Central Pacific; then a run down to Salt Lake, where they will remain one day night-seeing; thence to Cheyenne, by the Union Pacific, from which point they will go to Denver and visit that great metropolis one day. From Denver they will go by way of the C. B. & Q. to Chicago, arriving there on Sunday, June 17.

Reducing the Surplus.

The disposition of the Surplus in the U. S. Treasury engages the attention of our Statesmen, but a more vital question has our attention, and that is the reduction of the Surplus Consumptives. Since the discovery and introduction of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, there has been a marked decrease in the mortality from this dreaded disease, and it is possible to still further reduce the number of Consumptives. How? By keeping constantly at hand a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and using according to directions, upon the appearance of the first symptoms, such as a Cough, a Cold, a Sore Throat, a Chest or Side Pain. Taken thus early a cure is guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

THE LIGHT HOUSES OF HELL.

Truckee's Prosperity—The "Gazette" Man, Dilates on Its Hotels, Schools, Churches and Gamblers—The Knights of the Green Cloth—McGlashan's Buttery. Editor GAZETTE.—I arrived here yesterday morning at a very early hour and hid myself to bed. A refreshing sleep and good breakfast followed. During my observations throughout the day and a greater part of last night I had ample opportunity to see nearly all of Truckee desirable. Its population will not exceed 1400 people. The school attendance reaches nearly 150 pupils, who are under the superintendency of Professor Bulfinch. I visited the schools and found them in excellent condition. The hotel accommodations are all that is desired. The two principal ones are the Truckee and the Sheritor House. Both of them take the GAZETTE. The tables are well supplied, particularly at this season of the year, nothing being more palatable than the tender young trout brought in from Independence, Donner and other lakes and streams in the vicinity. The sleeping apartments and other accommodations make one feel perfectly at home in either. The proprietors expect a large influx of strangers during the present season. Lake Tahoe and the surrounding country will be their objective point. A' though they have had a cold spell here for the past week to day was a regular MOUNTAIN SUMMER DAY.

And was the cause of much congratulation among Truckeese. There is a semi-weekly newspaper published here of a very spicy and readable character, the Truckee Republican, which is edited by Mr. Mason. The editor entertains great hopes of Truckee's future, and politically speaking, believes that notwithstanding the big burrah at St. Louis, that Grover Cleveland will not succeed himself in the coming election, even though the red bandanna of Thurman will be attached to the tail of his kite. The Truckee Lumber and Box Factory have now engaged over 100 men, while the mountain sides and timber sections are alive with woodchoppers and lumbermen. In consequence the town does not present as lively an appearance as is its wont. At night, however, the flaring colored and dust bedizened headlights of the gambling dens and stud-horse poker dives illumine the principal thoroughfare. The genus homo who frequent these HORRIBLE LIGHT HOUSES OF HELL are not thriving at this writing, as their victims do not get paid off until about the 20th of the month. However they exist, and are rewarded for their patient waiting on the arrival of the unfortunate devils that have been vigorously swinging the ax in the neighboring forests, only to plant down their hard earned twenties on the counters of the cormorants who lie in wait for them. A brief spree, a new pair of shoes, possibly some underclothing, stout trousers, a blouse, and a few good meals at contiguous restaurants (?) is all the pleasure they derive, outside of participation in those orgies found only in the company of the demi monde. Then the KNIGHTS OF THE GREEN CLOTH Get the remainder. The saturated, but previously hearty physique of the toiler, again disappears among the hills, where he repairs at his leisure and by hard labor. Plenty of sleep and rough fare soon cleanses his system from the influences of the poisonous liquids that crazed his brain on his brief sojourn to Truckee. God help him. Experience teaches him nothing. He strengthens only to weaken again. The systematic operator knows more of his nature than he does himself, so he makes his calculations in accordance with his knowledge of his true nature. He returns again. It should not be construed by your readers that this reflects at all on men who occasionally pass away a few hours at a game of cards—even at draw, or stud horse poker, but it does and should strike with all the force desirable at that.

CHARLATANISTIC AND PERAPETIC Chromes, which when seen in Salt Lake City, is likely to confront you in Tuscarora, Virginia City, Reno or in this vag's Mecca, Truckee. Even the men who run the saloons where games are operated, would much prefer their absence to their company. They have no visible means of subsistence. Their bright eyes and sallow complexions are sure signs of their debauchery. Opium smoking and morphia consumption, with cigarette and banian indulgences prevent the patent poisons they have consumed from appearing immediately on the surface; but when once disease sets in and nature is anxious to throw off the mortal coil with which they have tied her up, they die horrible examples of habits over which it seems they have no control and are buried, I am sorry to say,

"Unknown, unhonored and unsung."

It is a blessing to state that notwithstanding all this the moral sentiment of this thriving and universally known resort predominates. There are no more happy or contented people in the United States today than the Central Pacific railroad employes. A large proportion of them are fathers of families and their children attend the public schools. The latter are above the average in intelligence and few of them indeed give any evidence of that hoodlum disposition I find in a few Nevada towns. Besides, there are two other civilizing as well as christianizing influences constantly at work here, and the good fruit realized from the labor expended speaks for itself in the principal streets. They are the Catholic and Methodist churches, both of which maintain a good and well-defined Sunday-school discipline. The former has no resident clergyman but the Reverend Father Kelly of Reno makes regular trips here to see that the flock is properly nourished, while the Reverend Mr. Hinkle of the Methodist Church is working day and night to impress the parents as well as the youth with the great necessity of a Christian education. To these gentlemen every encouragement, and no doubt in the near future their labors, with the aid of the legally constituted State and local authorities, may result in protecting the homes of the industriously and religiously inclined from the paralyzing influences of those unfortunates who are always found in or about such dens of iniquity where the wild waves of wretchedness swell. So mote it be. Counselor McGlashan is the principal lawyer here, Mr. Mason of the Republican being almost constantly engaged in the excellent journal. The former can be seen on any fine day with his BUTTERFLY NETS, Strolling out along the C. P. R. R., eager and anxious to add many more hundreds of this gaily colored insect to the thousands he has already collected. He has secured a U. S. patent for a glass air tight apparatus for the preservation of the butterfly, and is very enthusiastic over it. His present collection is one well worthy a visit by any connoisseurs that live to be pleased with that philosophy embodied in the oft quoted phrase "Variety is the spice of life," and as I myself am somewhat of that temperament I will reserve other information in my possession for a future letter and remain as ever, NAHOM.

Last Night's Dance.

Declared Off.

Carson City cannot stand a first-class Fourth of July and a district fair in the same year, so the former has been declared off. To forestall other towns a huge Fourth was announced in that city, and the Governor ordered the militia of the State to report for inspection there months ago. The generals, colonels, majors, captains and lieutenants had rushed up their armorial bearings and buttons and were in training for their best mile, when the order calling them to the capital was revoked. Lo! the disappointment. Thank the Lord, if Carson does not celebrate, the militia and loyal citizens of Nevada can quietly bop the anniversary of our national natal day at home.

The Lecture.

Captain Hill, who represents the United States Temperance Association, delivered a most able and pleasing lecture last night at the Baptist Church. The house was filled and the audience were more than pleased. The captain will do California before he returns East.

Nevada's Horse Production.

Mr. Alex Wise of Winnemucca passed through Reno Wednesday night with five car-loads of horses for the San Francisco market. Two carloads were for driving purposes, while the remainder are intended for heavy and light work. These horses were raised and trained in Humboldt county and appeared as fine specimens of horse flesh as could be seen in any part of the United States for the purposes they are intended for. They will command from $75 to $300 per head, and their appearance in the California market will undoubtedly create considerable comment among the knowing ones. The GAZETTE advises purchasers to call early on Mr. Wise if they wish to see some of Nevada's most superb productions.

A Wonderful Remedy.

The value of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the protection it affords from the dangers of pulmonary disorders, cannot be over-estimated. Mr. C. K. Phillips, Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "About three years ago I had severe Laryngitis, which resulted in chronic hoarseness. By the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral I have since entirely regained my health." Mr. Henry Russell, Excelsior Printing Co., New York, writes: "Influenza came epidemic in my neighborhood. Several members of my family suffered severely with it, all of whom took Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and were cured by it in a few days. It is a wonderful medicine for Influenza. Too much cannot be said in its favor."

E. M. Sargent, 41 Andover st., Lowell, Mass., says: "I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral about the year 1842, as a family medicine, for Coughs and Colds, and have always kept it in my house since that time. I consider it the best remedy that can be had for these complaints." Dr. J. B. Robertson, Clayton, N. C., writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in my family and practice, for a number of years, and have no hesitation in recommending it. It is an admirable preparation, and well-qualified to do all that is claimed for it." E. J. Stiers, Germantown, N. C., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best Cough preparation I ever saw. It gives instant relief."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has cured a Cough in a few doses. It always relieves irritation of the lungs on throat, and arrests the tendency to inflammation. It strikes at the foundation of all Pulmonary diseases, is without a rival as an expectorant, and is a sure cure for the most obstinate Coughs and Colds. L. Garrett, Texana, Texas, writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for twenty years. For throat and lung diseases, I consider it a wonderful remedy."

ARE THEY HUMAN?

A CHAPTER OF CRUELITIES.

Geese Felled with Red-Hot Iron for Corn-Horses' Tongues Felled Out.

Mr. Charles Douglass, the general agent for the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Animals, whose duty it is to travel through the State and organize the various counties into co-operative branches, and lecturing, gives the following interesting information. Mr. Douglass makes a study of the cases of cruelty he discovers throughout the State, and having a kindly heart for the brute creation, tells some terrible tales of man's brutality to beast.

"You run across a good many cases of cruelty, don't you, outside of the large cities?"

"Why, yes, you'd be astonished at the number of cases I find. The honest farmer is about as cruel as the man in town, and then he's away where he thinks nobody will see him or know anything about it. For instance, in Allen County, a man tried to induce a boy thirteen years of age to go out and steal some corn. The little fellow refused, and so the man resolved to punish him. He tied him up by his thumbs, and, laying his back bare to his waist, whipped him until the blood ran. A daughter, younger, for a slight offense, was treated in the same way. "And where was the mother?" "Why, standing by, encouraging all this brutality."

"Another case in the same county was one of horrible brutality. A dog was saturated with benzene, set on fire and started through the alleys and cross lots of Lima."

FEEDING GESE HOT IRON.

"In another part of the State, a blacksmith, who had been annoyed by a flock of geese entering his shop, resolved to fix them, though he could easily have put up a board and shut them out; but no. He devised a scheme chockful of devilishness. He heated a rod of iron red-hot, and chopping off pieces the size of kernels of corn, threw them out where the geese were. They, mistaking them for corn, swallowed them, and the whole flock perished. The iron fairly burned holes through them."

TEARING OUT A HORSE'S TONGUE.

"In a farming county in the interior of the State, a farmer, who owned a balky horse, tried every way to cure him. He smeared his hands with oil of cumin, said charms, whispered in his ear, tied a rope to his tail and passed it through his hind and fore legs, but all of no avail. He then determined on a method of his own invention, that for sheer brutality almost heads the list. He tied a stout cord, the size of my little finger, slip-noose fashion to the root of the horse's tongue, and literally tore it out. Of course the horse would have to be killed, as he could not eat."

"Then I have those cases to report of men tying chains to horses' lower jaws and tearing them off."

IT STOPPED BELLOWING.

"Cutting out tongues is a favorite amusement with some people?" "Yes, a favorite mode of torture. At Wapakoneta, Auglaize County, a butcher brought in a calf from the country, and tied it up in a stall to be slaughtered early in the morning. The orphaned calf missed its mother, and was hungry, and called loudly for something to eat during the night, as only a stout, hearty two months' old calf can. The butcher's sweet sleep was disturbed, and, rising from his bed he rushed out, seized a sharp knife, and, getting hold of the poor creature's tongue, cut it clear off."

MEDICINE FOR A CHICKEN-EATING SOW.

"Pigs are not often treated unkindly, are they?" "Not!" Well, up in Madison County, a certain old sow had a decided fondness for spring chickens, not old hens, and one day a few young chicks straying into her pen, she made a square meal. The worried farmer ran into the house, heated a poker red-hot, and put out both her eyes."

MEAN FARMERS.

"You find some pretty mean farmers then?"

"Up in Putnam County was a man so mean that he wouldn't give his stock even pasture. In one season he lost sixty head of cattle. He was rich, so there was no excuse. One of his acts of cruelty was having turned a flock of sheep into a pasture completely run down, containing nothing but cockle-burs and Canada thistles, and two of the sheep, a little more foolish, as it turned out, than the rest, jumped over into his vegetable garden to get something green. That was enough; the farmer's mad was now up, and he hitched the two sheep together, yoked them up and turned them loose. They wandered off into the woods, and got entangled. One of them was found dead, its flesh devoured by the buzzards, while beside its bleaching bones lay the other, nearly dead, and partially devoured."

"Didn't they punish such a fiend as this?"

"Yes, he was arrested and brought before the Common Pleas Court, but he got out of it somehow; yet public indignation was so great that he was compelled to sell out and clear out—move to another State."

CRUEL BOYS MAKE CRUEL MEN.

"In Henry County a young man only twenty-four was hung for murdering a man and his wife, with an ax, about a year ago. When a boy he was his delight to torture animals. He boiled cats and dogs in his mother's washbowl, and frequently held the poor creatures over fires until they were burned to death. He appeared to delight in their agonies."

"Another case that well illustrates this principle: The party was noted for his cruelty as a boy, and one of his favorite occupations in winter, was plucking the last feather out of a chicken, and on the coldest day turning it out in the cold to see how long it would live. This man was lately on trial for poisoning his wife."

"Husband, if an honest man is God's noblest work, what is an honest woman?" "The rarest, dear."
